When reserving the services of the Sikh Society to perform the Paths and all related activities, please keep in mind the following items in respect of the Sadh Sangat's norms, ensuring mutually satisfactory and smooth completion of your function. If, for some unforeseen reason, you need to cancel the reservation, full amount will be refunded only if Society receives a written 30-days notice - Cancellations accepted in person only.

1. The Paths will be performed in accordance with the Akaal Takhat Maryada.
2. All activities will be managed by the Society, with our own Guranthi Ji and Ragi Jatha coordinating with other resources on an as needed basis, while keeping a focus on the main objective of the family hosting the Paths.
3. If the Paths are held or completed at the Gurdwara, or the kitchen facilities are used to prepare the Langar, it is your responsibility to make sure that the items below are completed fully so that everything is left in clean and working condition to be ready for next booking:
 - a. Wash, dry and store all pots, pans, dishes, utensils, small appliances and towels used
 - b. Clean and wipe thoroughly all stoves/counter tops, machinery, tables, benches and sinks
 - c. Sweep and mop thoroughly the floors in the kitchen and all food prep areas
 - d. Ensure all storage areas, washrooms, langar hall, hallways and parking areas are clean
 - e. Transfer any cooking oil used safely and without spills to recycle oil bin located outside
 - f. Empty all garbage bins into the dumpster located outside and replace their bags
 - g. NEVER discard oil, grease, daals/sabjees and other food items in the sinks or septic system
 - h. NEVER remove/borrow any kitchen items without written approval by priest/secretary
 - i. Please VACATE the kitchen facility by 4:00 pm on Sat, if required by other than yourself, to allow sufficient time to make preparations for Sunday's langar.

Failure to meet above listed items will result in back charges of $150.00.

NOTE: Society's kitchen facilities and this agreement are available to private Sikh families for their personal religious functions only, and are not available to restaurants or others for commercial gains.
